MEET PAT AND ED BREWER

Pat and Ed Brewer

Pat and Ed Brewer met in Savannah, Georgia, while cruisin' down Victory Drive where the street was lined with palm trees along the beach. Ed was driving his TR3 sports car (solid black) and his eyes met Pat's, so the rest is history! They fell in love and got married. Ed and Pat raised two children

(Edward Lee, Jr. and Lynn) and have been blessed with four grandchildren. They are a close family and love their Poppy and Grammy!

Ed served in the United States Air Force and had a long career (39 years) working in his field as an Electronic Technician for South Central Bell, the Federal Aviation Administration, airports in Asheville, Greenville/Spartanburg, Gainesville and Tallahassee. Pat enjoyed her work in real estate, with the Orkin Exterminating Company, Hughes Supply, and the Milliken Company.

Pat writes poetry and has received seven awards for her writings. Ed's expertise in electronic technology has been very helpful to residents with computer issues! They have loved traveling in their RV (5th wheel) to Canada, California, New England, Nevada and Florida. Overseas travels have taken them to England, Scotland and Hawaii.

Pat moved to the Fountains following a stroke and Ed joined her in 2019. "The people are friendly here and it feels like home. We love our two-bedroom apartment with a sunroom." We are so thankful the Brewers are a part of our Fountains family!

Event Highlights!

Ina and Patricia

Wow! It was so exciting as residents and staff gathered together to view the eclipse! Ina and Patricia grabbed a spot early so they could see every minute as the eclipse unfolded in the sky. Thank you, Jane, for providing safety glasses for all of us as we anticipated and watched this historical event. It was a gorgeous day and we loved every minute of it! There's one thing certain ... we don't miss anything at the Fountains!

We will be Celebrating Our Mothers on Saturday, May 4, at 2:00p.m. in the dining room. Fruit cobbler and ice cream will be served while we listen to beautiful music and enjoy honoring those special women who have inspired us through the years. RSVPs may be made to laurie@fountainsfranklin.com or by calling Laurie at 615.567.3717, ext. 502. See you there!
