

Meet Clarence Hibbs!

Clarence Hibbs grew up in the Panhandle of Texas on a farm on the Oklahoma line. His family was wheat and dairy farmers. The nearest town had a population of 500. Clarence graduated from high school at Borger Texas. He continued his education and graduated from Abilene Christian University and University of Iowa. Clarence met his future wife, Janice at church in Dallas, Texas and they were married in 1960. Their first daughter was born in Houston, Texas. In 1962, they moved to Dallas and lived there until 1969. Their second daughter was born in 1964. Soon, they moved to Iowa City, Iowa where they worked with a church until graduation. In 1975, they traveled to California to work at Pepperdine University. When they had been there a year, Clarence and his wife took a foster-daughter, assuming she would be with them two years. After 46 years, she is still very much a part of their family. In 2015, Clarence spent the next four years caring for his brother. After 57 years of marriage to Clarence, Janice passed away in 2017. Clarence wanted to live closer to his daughters and granddaughters. They considered several senior living options and chose The Fountains because they felt it was the most desirable place for their father to live. Clarence spent his working years in three different careers. His first was as a railroad sales representative. Secondly, he dedicated his life as a minister for 12 years. Thirdly, Clarence was with Pepperdine University as a counselor and then a faculty member. He was also a licensed Marriage and Family therapist for 39 years. In all those professions, the interaction and relationships with people were very important to him. Clarence's gentle spirit, compassion for others and strong faith are very evident as he "shines his light" every day at The Fountains!
